Mrs. Frank Codington

We the members of the 1974 Piper dedicate this annual to a person who has been an advisor, counselor, and teacher at Hamlin High School.

A person who has been concerned enough to become involved in each and every student at H. H. S.

Without her help the Piper Staff or the yearbook would not exist. It is with great pleasure that we dedicate this 1974 Piper to our advisor, Mrs. Frank Codington.

Keith and Bennett tax their brains on those hard annual layouts.

Changes its Outlook.

STAFF STRIVES
for Better
Yearbook

The 1974 Piper Staff has worked hard to publish the best yearbook it could. Receiving instructions and guides at two different yearbook seminars, the Piper Staff along with the sponsor, Mrs. Frank Coddington, has edited the 1974 Piper with the theme "Involvement." We hope you will have many happy memories and will enjoy the yearbook in the years to come.

The Hamlin FFA Chapter has selected establishing a day care center in Hamlin as their major projection in the Building Our American Communities Program this year.

Chapter members tore down an old house at the site of the center. With the scrap lumber, members have been busy building furniture for the center. Ten tables and forty-two stools have been constructed and carried to the center. Members are planning to build shelves, walls for an additional bathroom, and playground equipment.

Jr.-Sr. Banquet Has Western Theme

Dining was a pleasure of Silver City.

Seniors John Hudson and Sher Howerton were named King and Queen of the Golden West at the western style banquet given for the seniors hosted by the Junior Class.

The stage was decorated with buildings from the old west, including a delivery stable, barber shop, general store, saloon, bank and jail. Cardboard figures of people completed the stage setting.

Tables were decorated with red and white checkered cloths. Lamps and lanterns were used for lighting. Centerpieces were cactus and horse shoes set in styrofoam.

Debra St. Clair and Cynthia McMillan read the prophecy. Dana Wright and Carla Adair read the will.

Gary Don Boyd of Anson spoke on "Liking Yourself, no matter what you do with the rest of your life."

Randy Elmore, president of the Junior Class, was master of ceremonies.

Frank Shearer, Senior Class president, gave the response.

Frank's joke gets a varied response.

"Suitable for Hanging"

The play was a 3 act Mystery and comedy. Charlie Hackle appeared to have the world in a downhill pull . . . until he not only missed his wedding, but one whole day of his life.

Add two scientists who are using Charlie as a "guinea hog" for a truth serum, and two foreign agents and you come out with a surprising and somewhat startling discovery.

The play was directed by Mrs. Warren Sharp, senior sponsor.

Homecoming is the crowning of queens, the floats, the football game, the meals, friends, enemies, and remembering your involvement in H.H.S.

Bottom Middle: Mr. Cook is back in the halls of H.H.S.

Bottom Right: Isn't it amazing who you bump into at big gatherings?

Involvement through Athletics

Athletics, the tie that binds both mental and physcial abilities. Athletics is a place where both students and community become involved. The 1974 annual staff is grateful to both students and community for the outstanding year in sports for our school. It could not have been possible without the involvement of everyone.

The 1973 Piper Team

The 1973 Pipers performed a season that will always be well remembered in the hearts of the Piper Fans. The "Green Team" put all they had together and made themselves known around the Big Country.

The Pipers became known as the 6AA District Champs and AA Bi-District Champs. Fourteen of the Piper team members will be graduating—Some to go further with their football ability and some will proceed to obtain their goal in life. Those who are remaining in H.H.S. are looking forward to a prosperous year in the 1974 season.

The Piper Staff wishes all of the 1973 Piper team the best of luck, to those leaving and those remaining in H.H.S.

Administration Provides Leadership

The Hamlin School Board works hard to maintain high district standards. These men spend many long hours in planning an academic program to assure a year of full development for each student.

The faculty, administration, and student body owes a great debt of appreciation and thanks to these men for their services.

ACADEMICS

The Administration Plans

Starting his second year at HHS Mr. Bob Hawes has shown intelligence and determination when confronted with the problems and responsibilities of being superintendent.

His work and guidance have been a valued asset to all of the students and teachers of HHS.

While working hard with members of the school board and principals, Mr. Hawes blueprints the plans to make the Hamlin Independent School District a front runner in the field of education.

Knowing that school funds are a trust to be wisely used, Mr. Hawes works hard to direct the business affairs of our school district.

Mr. Bob Hawes, Superintendent

Mr. B. V. Newberry, Principal

Another man, who is ofte feared by a few students, but al ways respected by all, is Mr. B. V Newberry, HHS principal.

This is his 26th year at HHS. Mr Newberry is responsible for keep ing all the students in line, and generally, seeing that the school i kept running smoothly.

Looking for the fascinating, the new, and the stimulating is the philosophy of Principal Newber ry. He believes education come first, as the simple sentence he uses so often: "Keep those stu dents in the classroom!"

Mr. Jones has done an outstanding job in developing the "Marching Green" into the pride of Hamlin. The band consistently rates high in all contests, both individually and as a unit. The big reward will come in the spring of '74 when the band goes to Hawaii during the spring vacation. Both the school and the community are totally involved in this effort and in our appreciation to you, Mr. Jones.

Miss Mitchell strives for perfection in the business department. Business courses have proven to be a great asset to HHS students, and will continue to be as we advance into this technological age. These courses help our students plan their careers and provide a better future.

1974 was a year of involvement. Each student found himself getting busier and busier as he got more involved.

The 1974 Piper Staff pictures these involvements so you may always remember them.
